The Paleo Hebrew Alphabet : End Times Esoteria

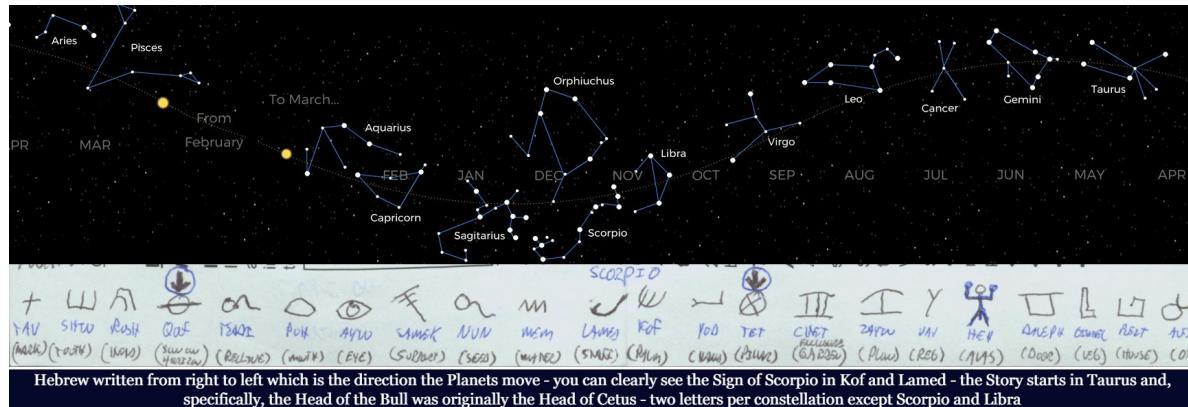

I will start by pointing out that the Paleo Hebrew Alphabet in the Chart above was used by King David himself and was still in use in the days of Hezekiah as mentioned in a recent news article concerning Turkey returning the Siloam Inscription to Israel.

The significance is that all esoteria came from this alphabet, one way or another, in all its various journeys because even the Egyptian Hieroglyphs of the Mystery Schools, ancient and modern, suffered a nervous breakdown at the confusion of tongues all those eons ago.

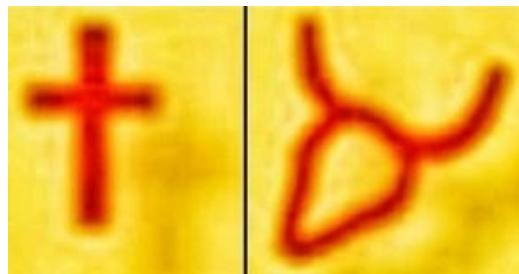

The Modern Hebrew Letters (top row) are far removed from the Original Script (third row), as you can easily see in the chart above, with the original letters having been drawn, literally, from the constellations themselves and this is most noticeable with lamed and kaf which combined can easily be seen to form the constellation Sign of Scorpio.

Of significance, for this greeting, is that the Alpha Omega phrase of the Ancient Mysteries (Christians should be asking themselves why Y'shua used that phrase), originally, would have been the Aleph Tov of the Hebrew (and why He didn't use this one) written from right to left because that's the direction the planets travel through the starry heavens at night.

When combined together you have a very ancient, possibly lost, symbol that probably gave rise to the Ankh, and its closest modern equivalent sign Mercury (Quicksilver) and was assuredly founded upon Heh's Shen Symbol of Eternity (below right).

Most Christians should probably leave now as that is all you will want to know from the ancient mystery schools and the material on this site will be of a secular nature geared towards a very mature audience with the motivation being initiation into Hyh's Lodge (Heh of Predynastic Egypt - see fifth phonetic letter in the chart above).

All my religious material can be found on my Theoferrum website (link on our Crest above) and you won't have to worry about tripping over any adult material (part and parcel in the secular, and most of the sacred, mysteries) and cuss words are automatically 'sanitized' in that censored forum.

Cryptic Masonry

Now, in the Cryptic degrees of York Rite 7* Masonry, at one point the Initiate is presented with an object (supposedly of nothing in particular but, originally, it was probably this very lost symbol) and he is asked if he knows what it is to which he affirms he knows its beginning to which his Mantaur replies that he knows its end.

Each symbol in God Ordained York Masonry (just ask Enoch if you don't believe me whose very name means Initiate which can only be one religion) has at least two meanings and this is not to deceive people, as some suggest (corrupt 33* 'masons'), but to separate the Sacred from the Profane (as I have tried to do with my websites) and to recruit people to the militant side of the house (as opposed to civilian) by choosing Exoteric Symbols for their innuendo potential as Esoteric Symbols also and only those people who understood this second meaning, and who were mature enough to handle the information, would seek advancement in a military capacity.

As I have stated elsewhere, for all practical purposes from a realistic point of view, there are three types of people in this world. You are either a sheep, wolf or one of the dogs that the Creator uses to protect the sheep from the wolves.

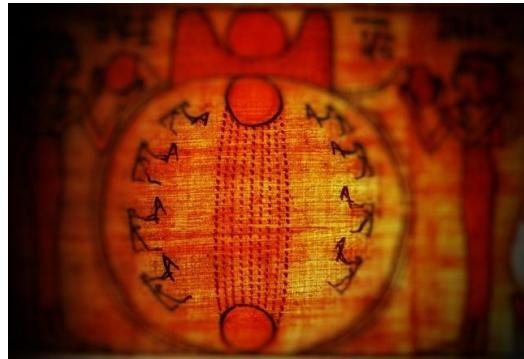

Dawg Training Camp

So, the meaning of the Exoteric Symbol above, let's say, is the Planet Mercury, the Messenger of the Creator, which even civilians recognize and it is used in the Science of Astronomy, one of the building blocks of any civilization including modern ones, and could be used to recruit civilians to that profession where they would become upstanding and valuable Pillars of Society.

But, you will also notice the phallic potential of that same symbol and, if you throw in a little Quicksilver (Infinity Seed), you have an Esoteric Symbol that could be used to recruit people into military service which is also necessary for building and protecting a prosperous society including the Intelligence and Special Forces branches.

Add to that the fact that the Hebrew Root Word Aleph Tov is connected to plowing (Strong's Number 855), and you have an Esoteric Symbol of the Creator as the Plowman which is exactly how He appears in Genesis, "the first time Eloha plowed the heavens and earth" (Roberts-Hill translation) and it is probably not a coincidence that the Ogdoad made their debut plowing the Creation Mound (and note the obvious phallic symbol in the picture below where the mountains are testicals and/or you have the mountains receiving the sun at night with 'arms' wide open, know what I mean).

It is used for sexual knowledge in Genesis where Adam knew his wife where the word 'knew' is a compound word of 'hand' (Strong's # 3045 from # 3027 and yod in the chart above suggests to know by touch) and this word 'plow' (Strong's # 853) presenting sexual imagery under the word picture of putting your hand to the plow which is the same imagery as the Egyptian hieroglyph of the plow pictured below (implying the Man knows his Boy) which means 'beloved' (as does my name).

The Plowman and his beloved Boy

Were a person to get a tattoo of the Sign of the Plowman they would be proclaiming the Creator's ownership of their body, soul and spirit effectively making them Heh's boy - one of the Creator's Dawgs - and, more importantly, a Soldier in our Army one way or another.

This is, believe it or not, the foundational principle of all Esoteria both Secular and Sacred (Christianity the only exception which could be considered the civilian side of the house) which I prove in the material below for the mature visitor. The Pillar on the left is in document form with photos and videos on the right. The Middle is, basically, a site map to the same material for redundancy purposes.

This should be sufficient as a basic introduction to our camp. If you can't handle the information above you sure won't be able to handle the revelations that follow so some of you might want to take a break for now and come back later when you are more esoterically mature.

For those who can handle it...

Welcome to our Camp
